Gianna is incredibly responsible. She manages her time and materials in the classroom consistently. Gianna is always focused, on task, and gets her work done without being told to. She takes pride in her work as well. She takes her learning seriously! Gianna is a field hockey player and manages her time outside of school responsibly as well. She never forgets to do her homework despite having activities to do	Laird is a very hard worker, very organized, and shows responsibility by always prepared for class, and by taking responsibility for his actions.	Maddi White is one of the most reliable and responsible students in junior high. She remembers all the details and follows through on everything. Because she is so responsible all the time, she is a natural born leader. I am truly thankful to have a student like her.
