Lucas Schmidt	Brooke Ballman	Gavin Lim
Lucas shows integrity each and every day by always following the classroom rules, and he always listens to the teacher's directions when heard the first time! He is a leader for the students in his classroom.	I am nominating Brooke for Integrity because she truly exemplifies this trait. I tell my students that Integrity means, not only doing the right thing when no one is watching, but also, when everyone else around is doing the wrong thing. Brooke is always choosing to do the right thing. Whether it is related to school rules, her classwork, or being a kind a caring friend and classmate.	Integrity
Alex Luscombe	Katelyn O'Brien	Teri Suarez

Alex is a joy to have in Spanish class this marking period. He comes in all smiles, and loves to sing and dance with me as we learn our Spanish songs. Alex is ready to learn and work, and his can-do attitude is a wonderful thing to witness. Alex knows that the more we work, the more fun we can have when we're done!	Katelyn is a student who is always eager to help others in the class. She will always encourage others around her to do their best and helps them whenever. Katelyn gives others positive comments and it truly does motivate them to try their best!	Teri always comes to class ready to learn. Whether it's new material or homework problems, Teri actively participates in class. Teri is always asking questions to further understanding and learns from mistakes. Teri does what we want every student to do in class.
